

Schooners & Crooners

A free concert presented in conjunction with the Great Chesapeake Bay Schooner Race

SCHOONER TIME,

the bluegrass band from the Bluenose Schooner Martha White, combines their love of bluegrass music & sailing on old wooden ships
www.schoonertime.com

Music of the seafaring nations from

Inishowen

www.facebook.com/pages/Inishowen/88325814362

Dubbed the “Springsteen of sea chanteys”,

Tom Lewis

shares traditional chanteys and songs fashioned out of his own seafaring background www.tomlewis.net

LETTER OF MARQUE

draws on their passion for maritime history to perform music born of that heritage www.letterofmarque.org

Enjoy the music & see the schooners that have arrived!
Tuesday, October 12, 2010 at 6:30 pm
Broadway Pier in Fells Point, Baltimore

The mission of the Great Chesapeake Bay Schooner Race is to promote awareness of the Chesapeake Bay’s maritime heritage and to encourage the preservation and improvement of the Chesapeake’s natural resources.

Proceeds of the race are used to support the preservation of the Bay through youth education programs.

www.schoonerrace.org